Our tour suggestions

Since you have decided to have a walk up to us let us give you a couple of suggestions in order to enjoy your tour. Depart from piazza della Scala and if you still haven't visited our famous theatre please have a rest on a bench and have a look / to the amazing Piermarini's building, a wonderful sample of the Italian XVIII's century architecture recently restructured by Mario Botta. /

Get into via Verdi, on the right side of the theatre, and discover Brera. Follow the street made by big brown stones and you will get right to the Milano Fine Arts Academy. Jump into the main court:

beside the Napoleone's statue you will see hundreds of young art students working or just chatting.

As you may know, the Accademia di Brera guests one of the most important museums of Italian modern paintings: Piero della Francesca, Mantegna, Tiepolo are part of a precious collection built by Napoleone Bonaparte.

If you are not in a hurry take your time and get lost between those narrow and fancy streets that characterize this district then continue through / via Solferino and corso Garibaldi and enjoy some window shopping!

Getting hungry? Don't miss a bite of "focaccia farcita" to the bakery store in Piazza XXV Aprile. It's on the left side of the square.

Let's go ahead along the pedestrian area and follow corso Como. Nice restaurants, wine bars and fancy boutiques....be careful if you are a shopping addict! At the end of the avenue keep your left along via Tocqueville till you find via Quadrio, this street leads you on the top of a bridge that brings you on the other side of the rail ways and upon the Island. Get a deep breath and march upon the climb, the skyline on the top is priceless at sunset. At the end of the bridge you will find via Pepe on your left and then via Carmagnola, after 200 m turn left in via Alserio: we are waiting for you!
